CLASS HISTORY

Change is defined as an alteration, transformation, or substitution. Our senior class has seen more changes in the last three years than any other class in the school's history. The changes, including almost every aspect of our school life, began with the transition from junior high to high school.

Student interest in school matters was intense and the first attempt at improvement was the revision of the out-dated dress code. The girls participated by wearing slacks to school. Reactions were varied among students and teachers. After some effective demonstrations, the old dress code was abolished and a liberal one was established.

Soon after this, our school was visited by the evaluation committee of the New England Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, whose objective is to assess schools and make suggestions to keep standards high. In preparation for their arrival, the labs, halls, and rooms were cleaned and painted. Needed repairs were made, while behind the scenes the faculty and administration reassessed the needs of the school. When the evaluators arrived, they carefully looked over the school. They made some suggestions and criticisms. Soon after, we received the verdict – Brighton High was put on probation for two years.

Just as we were becoming accustomed to school life, teachers went on strike to obtain higher wages and better educational facilities – confusion resulted. Although the school did not officially close its doors, many students did not cross the picket lines. However, those who did, were able to choose classes that their normal curriculum would not have allowed such as cooking, typing, and art. When the strike ended in late spring, seniors were leaving and classes had to begin to reorganize and make up for the lost time.

Our second year was characterized by a continuous series of student strikes. After much dissatisfaction, a group of students went to the Boston School Committee building to see school officials. Students from all over Boston attended a school committee meeting at Fanueil Hall to discuss their grievances. Although turmoil broke out there, Brighton High remained quiet at that time. Shortly afterwards, there were racial disturbances at a conference at Boston University which set off trouble across the city. Members of the student body and the administration held meetings in our library in hopes of finding some solutions.

Brighton High experienced a great deal of disruption, but in comparison to other schools across the city, we remained in control. As a result of the evaluation by the NEACSS, and the teachers' strike, there were a few changes already in process. New lights were installed in all the rooms and halls and some of the departments received new equipment. There were more shelves and new books for the library, and plans for a flexible campus program were initiated.

Upon returning for our last year, we were offered many new elective courses and other opportunities as flexible campus became a reality. New student privileges included leaving school for independent study at designated times; taking off-campus college courses at Boston College, Boston State, and Massachusetts College of Art; volunteering for work at the Kennedy Memorial Hospital and at St. Elizabeth's Hospital; volunteering to tutor in the elementary and junior high schools; taking special apprenticeship programs in politics, broadcasting, and urban problems; and taking on-campus courses at B.H.S. given by professional people.

Many new extracurricular activities have been added to the traditional inter-city and inter-district sports program which consisted of basketball, football, hockey, and track. In addition to these, students are able to participate on tumbling, swimming, and soccer teams for the boys and on bowling, basketball and swimming teams for the girls. A real evidence of change was displayed by the football team as the Bengals won their first Boston District League Championship in twenty years.

All things must change. We accept this principle and feel that one of the rules that our society is based on is the survival of the fittest. In order to grow, prosper, and flourish, we must adapt to our environment and the changes which occur in it. But we must stop and ask ourselves whether or not all changes are good. The answer, of course, is negative. Although we accept change, we also must question it.

LOOKING BACK

I see I've come a long way

From fairy tales.

And where I once wanted to be,

I am.

And though it often seems hard now,

Looking ahead,

I've a long way to go.

CHEERLEADERS

The cheerleaders began preparation for the coming sports season by holding 3 car washes to raise money to attend cheerleading camp at the University of Connecticut. At camp the girls learned many new cheers, stunts, and routines to cheer for Brighton's players and spectators at the forthcomng games.

It proved to be a very exciting football season for the Brighton cheerleaders. The squad was greatly rewarded by the Brighton Bengals' victory — the District Crown Championship.

Their dedication paid off once more as the basketball team was also victorious and became the new District Champions.

The cheerleaders can proudly look back on the greatest sports year Brighton has ever had.

BRIGHTON HIGH SCHOOL STUDENT COUNCIL

The purpose of the student council is to express and promote the interest and opinions of the students toward improving our school.

The Council organized a committee to study student rights. Cerebral Palsey volunteers were also organized. Proposals were set up for a student lounge, a continental breakfast, and a librarian substitute for full use of the library facilities throughout the school day. Students attended meetings of the Central Student Council at Boys' Latin School, Boston College High School and Girls' Trade. Plans were set up for an "exchange" day with Belmont High School.

BADMINTON

This year the badminton team consisted of eight girls. Two hour practice sessions were held twice a week. The team won four games and was praised for excellent playing and for good conduct over the opposing teams.

BOWLING

A league of thirty-five girls traveled to Sammy White's Bowling Alley once a week for the two-hour practice session. The ten highest scorers were then chosen to compete with twelve other schools in a tournament held in March.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Brighton High has two girls' basketball teams, varsity and junior varsity, with 10 and 12 players respectively. Practice is held for two and one-half hours, two days a week, and a game is played once a week. Throughout the season, the girls play a total of seven games — the first one against Girls' Latin.

When the J.V. team played against the Edison varsity team, they came out victorious, however, our team was not able to defeat the teachers. The team has a lot of talent, is hard working, dedicated and has good sportsmanship.

The season climaxed with the varsity team clinching the All City Championship.

BASKETBALL

The basketball team won its first District League Championship this year, going undefeated in all district league games. The Bengals are noted for their ability to come through in clutch situations. In the game in which Brighton clinched the District League Championship, the Bengals trailed Jamaica Plain by 13 points in the third quarter. Utilizing their fast break, they overcame the defeat and went on to win, 106-95.

Many players had an important role in this year's campaign. A pleasant surprise was Ralph Walker, who improved steadily through the course of the season and earned a starting job at the State Tourney game. "Mr. Clutch" on the team this year would have to be Sam Turner as he consistently helped us out of tight situations. The key man of our devastating zone press was Rudi Edwards, who harrassed the opposition into numerous mistakes. Dredrick Lyons and Fred Steinfort frequently aroused the Brighton High squad with their aggressive style of play. John Smith and Quinton Adams kept the bench alive with their enthusiastic cheering.

1971-1972 marked the season in which Joe Fortes set a Brighton High School rebound record at 33, breaking the old record by four. Three times the Bengals went over the hundred-point mark in a game.

FOOTBALL

The 1971 Brighton High football team captured its first District League Championship in twenty years by posting a six and one record. Our season started with a bang as we defeated Roslindale 13-0 in the annual jamboree game. After a scoreless first half, senior back Dan Artesani exploded for a 34 yard touchdown run. Fred Steinfort converted to make the score 7-0. The score remained the same until the closing minutes when Steinfort booted 30 and 32 yard field goals to close out the scoring.

Brighton 13 — East Boston 0

Brighton's defense was superb as it crushed all attempts made by a tough Eastie team. The first score was set up as Gene Roberts raced 74 yards to the Eastie four. Several plays later Gerry McPherson plunged over for the score to give Brighton the lead. Late in the third quarter, after a bad snap from the Eastie center defensive end, Drederick Lyons tackled the punter on the five. Two plays later Gene Roberts plunged through the Eastie line for the second touchdown.

Brighton 16 — Southie 0

Again a tough Brighton defense kept Southie off the Scoreboard. This win extended our winning streak to seven games over the last two years. In the first half the only score came on a 40 yard field goal by Fred Steinfort. Brighton scored again in the third quarter when Gene Roberts rushed for 7 yards. With the Bengals constantly applying pressure, an errant pass was picked off by Gerry McPherson who raced 15 yards for the touchdown to complete the scoring.

Brighton 7 — Westwood 14

Brighton had its seven game winning streak snapped against an aroused Westwood team. Westwood scored twice; in the first quarter on a 35 yard pass play, and late in the fourth quarter on a 2 yard run. Brighton's only score came on a 7 yard run by Gene Roberts.

Brighton 32 — Roslindale 0

Brighton's romp over Roslindale was highlighted by Fred Steinfort's 50-yard field goal, four yards short of the state record. Steinfort also kicked three extra points and caught a 32 yard touchdown strike from Gerry McPherson. Halfback Gene Roberts added two scores, and Archie McCormack raced 29 yards for his first varsity touchdown.

Brighton 17 — Jamaica Plain 0

Two third quarter touchdowns by Gerry McPherson, one of them a 76 yard kick off return, gave Brighton its fourth straight District League shutout. In the first half Fred Steinfort provided the only points with a 30 yard field goal. Gerry's second touchdown came on a 5 yard rush.

Brighton 0 — Dorchester 21

Brighton fell into a first place tie as they dropped a convincing decision to Dorchester. The Bengals were physically overwhelmed by an aroused Dorchester squad.

Brighton 3 — Trade 0

The only score came late in the third quarter as Fred Steinfort boomed a 49 yard field goal. The win put Brighton in the driver's seat in the District League.

Brighton 9 — Charlestown 6

Brighton, behind the running of Dan Artesani, wrapped up their first District League Championship in twenty-three years. Dan Artesani was superb in establishing our ground attack. Fred Steinfort added a 35 yard field goal for the only score in the first half. In the third quarter, Artesani scored from 2 yards out. The Townies came right back with a 39 yard run to narrow the gap to 9-6. The outcome was in doubt until with twenty-seven seconds left, Leland Pope intercepted to clinch the victory.

HOCKEY

Brighton's hockey team had a few disadvantages going into the season. Lack of sufficient ice time for practice hurt, lack of experience, and lack of organization and team play. Later in the season, Brighton managed to smooth out a few ruffles.

Kevin McHugh was high scorer for Brighton and is regarded as the best all-around hockey player on the team.

The defensive unit was led by Bernie Callaghan and the hard-hitting Mike Grant.

Cooper, who played in the nets most of the time showed he has potential; he has two more years in which to prove himself a star. Cooper was backed-up by Metallides.

Sergio Roffo's services were missed as he made a fine comeback towards the end of the season.

Although Brighton's 6-6-2 record is not outstanding, it was a rewarding season in gaining experience which will pay off next season.

SOCCER

The soccer team enjoyed its finest season ever with an outstanding nine and two record.

Brighton contended for the Boston District League title from the beginning of the season. At the close of the season Brighton was tied for first place with Boston English but suffered a heartbreaking 2-1 loss in the championship playoff game against Boston English.

Brighton's explosive offense was led by Alex Sideropoulos, Robert Rosetti, and Terry Zirtides. They were aided by some fine goaltending from co-captain Timmy Metalides.

It was a fine all-around team effort which enabled Brighton to be successful. With more than half the team returning next season, the future looks extremely bright.

SWIMMING TEAMS

The boys' swimming team of Brighton High is led by Coach Ciccui, Captain Alphonse Anzaldi and Co-captain Clifford.

In scrimmage meets this season, Clifford, with an impressive performance, won the 100-yard medley. Anzaldi finished first in a diving contest, and Grant came in first place showing great endurance in the 100-yard back stroke. Other competitive swim strokes were the butterfly, the breast stroke, and the free Australian crawl.

Although the swimming team doesn't have the great depth of some opponents, they have the inspiration and the will which makes them a most respected team.

This year a girls' swimming team was introduced into girls' sports under the supervision of Mrs. Johnson. Practice is held at the Lee School in Dorchester on Tuesday afternoons. The girls learn competitive strokes and compete in the spring against Girls' Latin and Dorchester High.

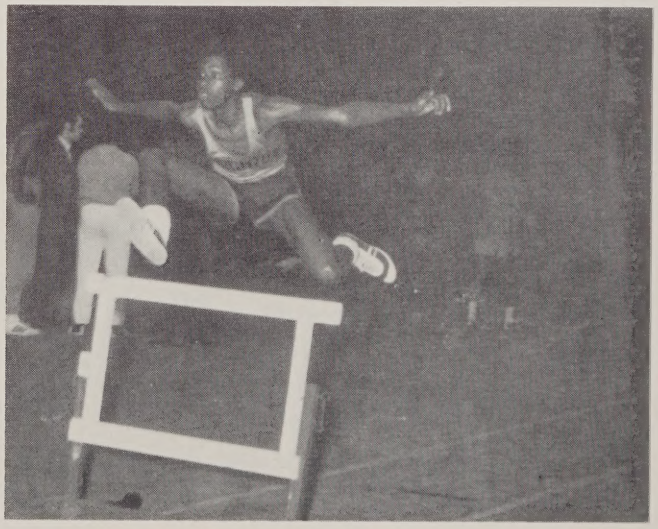
TRACK TEAM

This year's track team, coached by Mr. Thomas Lerra, includes seniors, James Taylor, Eric Morgan, and Gene Roberts and numbers thirty members. In Mr. Lerra's four years of coaching, he has a record of twenty-seven wins and four losses. As a result of this excellent record the Brighton track team has been moved from the Boston District League into the more competitive Boston City League. At present the team's record stands at three wins and two losses.

Eric Morgan commands the 45 yard high hurtles event and James Lewis runs the 600 yard. Gene Roberts competes in the 50 yard dash, while James Taylor specializes in the 2 mile run, and 1000 yard event. During his senior year in addition to winning the half-mile Fargo Meet and the 1000 yard run in the State Coach's Meet as well as the State Track Coach's Invitational Meet, Taylor holds the title of Top Runner of the 1000 yard run in the State of Massachusetts.



TUMBLING TEAM

First row: Lucy Quinteliani, Martha Solomon, Natlie Johnson, Mary Mooney.
Second row: Al Mattalliano, Donato Antonellis, Floro LaForetelza, Mr. Cicciu (Coach).

In its first year of existence, the Tumbling and Balancing Team is performing at a rate expected of a first year team. The gymnastics consist of ground tumbling, person-to-person balancing, and individual balancing.

The Brighton High School team is led by Coach Cicciu and its captain, Vincent Mattinelli. The team shows a lot of talent and will most likely improve with experience.

School Spirit in Action

FLEXIBLE OPEN CAMPUS

Plans for the flexible campus program began early last spring when questionnaires were passed out to students and faculty for suggestions on ways to improve the school. Included were suggestions for an open or flexible campus program. The school then set out to get the approval of the proper authorities and the actual planning began. During the summer, Mr. Healy, Mr. Casey, and Miss Phillips spent the month of July at Tufts University, preparing for the new open campus. Delegates to the Tufts program were sent from all Boston Public Schools. While there, Brighton's representatives wrote and presented a proposal for B.H.S. which was accepted by the Boston School Committee.

As a result, when school began in September, options to the regular curriculum were offered through the flexible campus program. Students began to attend classes at Boston College. Instructors and professional people came into Brighton High to teach. As the year went on, other opportunities opened up. The University of Massachusetts, Boston State College, and Cardinal Cushing College opened their doors to high school students.

To aid in the preparation of students' careers, courses were given in their related fields of interest. For those interested in a medical career, Kennedy Memorial Hospital and St. Elizabeth Hospital gave students volunteer positions in their labs and wards to acquaint them with hospital routine. With the help of the Chamber of Commerce, many students were introduced to the business world. Apprenticeships were offered in fields such as photography, hotel management, and insurance. Those interested in teaching were able to tutor at various schools throughout the city.

Although there are still many aspects that must be worked out, the flexible campus program has had many successes. Possibly the most important achievement was that the school committee, colleges, the business community and Brighton High School have been brought closer together.

Brighton High School Advisory Council

The Brighton High School Advisory Council was established in the spring of 1971. Its purpose was to advise and aid in planning for a flexible open campus for BHS. Members of the council were elected from the student body, from the faculty, from the Home and School Association. Interested community leaders were invited to become cooperating members.

Parents and Community leaders: Mrs. Anne Pecci, Mrs. Barbara Carney, Mrs. Gloria Leonard, Mr. Max Lefkowith, Mr. Bruce Marquis, Police Lt. John Kelly.

Teachers: Mr. John Doherty, Mr. William Quinn, Miss Joyce Dadomo, Mr. Tom Lerra, Mr. Joseph Powers.

Students: Jean Roberts, Rochelle Hardaway, Lance Pope, Peter Lowre, Leland Pope, James Thames.

Boston Student Advisory Council

The Boston Student Advisory Council is a city-wide student council with power in setting policy for individual schools. It works within the system, going through legal channels and facing the School Committee constructively. The B.S.A.C. is made up of one representative and two alternates from each of Boston's twenty-one high schools. Each representative is elected by the school student council, one alternate is chosen by the school headmaster, while the other is chosen by the school faculty senate.

Five officers are elected by its members every year. The advisor is Mr. S. J. Messina, who has been working on various committees within the Boston School Department.

At the end of last year, its first in operation, a new imporant privilege was obtained by the council. A student now sits as a non-voting member of the Boston School Committee. Although the student is not able to vote, he has the same power as the superintendent in that he makes recommendations and voices the student's opinions. In the interest of fairness, the designation of the student who sits on the School Committee was placed on a rotating basis among the officers.

The B.S.A.C. is one of the few organizations truly representing the student's views — it was formed and is run by students. This is an excellent means for students to keep in touch with what is happening at the other Boston schools. Brighton High's delegates to the B.S.A.C. are Linda Ross, Debbie Paulino, and James Onessimo.

The curriculum committee is a group made up of guidance counselors, department heads, data processing personnel and students representing factions of the student body (college, business, co-op, sophomores, juniors and seniors). It is now in its second year of existence. The purpose is to discuss and decide upon what courses of study — both old and new — will be included in the next year's program.
